1) UNA Cumulative Grade Point Average
(at the time of this application) _____

- Special Note: For cumulative GPA calculation and scholarship purposes at UNA, transfer work is NOT included.
- If you need information regarding your exact GPA, go to the Registrar's Office (Bibb Graves Hall). Please note that GPA information is not provided by telephone.

2) Community/Church Service: On a single, attached page, briefly describe contributions you have made to your local community and/or church. Be sure to include any volunteer work in which you have participated (i.e. Heart Fund, Cancer Society, volunteer work with community schools and agencies, United Way). Please label this Attachment 1.

3) Essay: Attach an original, personal essay entitled "How I Plan To Make A Difference In My Local Community Following Graduation From UNA". Please label this Attachment 2.

Requirements for essay

- Maximum 5 pages (double-spaced).
  Applications that include essays longer than 5 pages will not be considered.
- Essay should be typed. Using first person in the essay is acceptable.
- The work should be original and specific to your local community. Write as if you were hired to teach in your local community. Remember the following premise as you prepare your essay— Teachers are expected to be involved in volunteer work in the local community. Write your piece from that perspective.
- Since the essay is designed to be original work, do not ask professors for assistance with your essay.
