

9.9.2021– 3:30 PM

The meeting was called to order at 3:30 pm.
The agenda was passed as presented.
The minutes were passed as presented.

Special Business:

- City Council liaison report
 - They passed some resolutions
 - Jake got to speak about the program with them
 - Suicide prevention week proclamation passed
 - The parking decks downtown to be torn down was passed – there will be two new ones built up
 - If you want to be a liaison you can be one – anyone – talk to Jake if that is what you desire
- Open Forum –
 - Mary downy – spoke in agreement to impeachment
 - Megan Humphry - spoke in agreement to impeachment
 - Jenna - spoke in agreement to impeachment
 - Student - spoke in agreement to impeachment

Officer Reports

President Statom: he talked to the board of trustees about the Fred gray resolution, first Fridays, roar guides, and pretty much everything that is usually in the presidents report he shared with them. Paint the paws is now a go. We will do this continuing on every seven years it'll be redone. Paws and say Hey day is ready as well. The JSU rivalry is pretty much on JSU and also were looking at the basketball schedule to figure out where we may could do something with that. He will send out the physical copy from the Board of trustees meeting. Kayla and him met with Dr Greenway and he spoke on what they talked about during the meeting. (one big one was quarantine and teachers working with them) We are working on the resolution for Dr cruise. Talon is still working on the SGA endowed scholarship. Pep bus for the auburn or Mississippi game or if you guys have any suggestions.

Vice President Walton: She reminded everyone about the legislative procedures. Roberts rules of order reminders were given. There is a quick reference guide given out. Fill out the senator agreement form and see Kayla if you have not done so. There will also be an open forum today. She reminded everyone about what side everyone is on. And that is the side of the students.

Secretary Warner: no report

Treasurer Dempsey: The budget will be presented next week. He is also working on project 208. He has sent out an email to all of the chairs

Pro-Tempore: no report

Freshman Forum Advisor Gosart: no report

Chair Reports

Academic Affairs Chairwoman Bullard: Her committee is presenting two resolutions today. The flowchart is going to now be a form with Kayla and Dr greenway. Give her any ideas

Budget Oversight Chairwoman Brooks: First meeting was Tuesday. Thank you guys for all of the help.

Elections and Recruitment Chairwoman Johnson: signatures are due

Legislative Affairs Chairman Shinholster: no report

Student Welfare Chairman Brite: no report

Shared Governance

Old Business

- Impeachment Proceedings

- We went into executive session.
- We will add Trevor ford and take off specific names
- We will leave executive session
- We will now vote by ballot
- 21-07 add shared gov committee to recipients on res 21-07
- The results of this vote are 16:10 therefore meaning that the resolution is not passed.

New Business

- Resolution 21-06 and Resolution 21-07 were passed

Open Discussion

- Jake spoke
- Makenzie Spoke and thanked everyone for speaking. She made known that she is there for them
- It was asked about a student vote – answer was two weeks.

Advisor's Report

He thanked everyone for being here and sharing. He believes that discussion and dialogue is needed.

Homecoming activities are open for students and groups to be able to sign up

Nominations for court will open next week

UPC will be doing the foam party tonight and the movie night tomorrow and the tailgating this weekend

Announcements

Student welfare committee is meeting after this meeting

There is a game this Saturday and first responders get a ticket for free

Pep

Pep to all of the students

Pep to Audrey and Makenzie for writing the resolution

Pep to Kayla for keeping everything organized and smooth sailing

Pep to academic affairs for passing 2 resolutions

Respectfully Submitted,

Javia Warner

Secretary, Student Government Association