WELCOME TO THE PRIDE
TRANSFER GUIDE
The University of North Alabama seeks to support all transfer students from the moment of application until the day of graduation. With more than 100 majors, 130 student organizations, and an alumni base of more than 60,000, every student can find his or her next steps here at UNA.
Students who transfer from a traditional community college with minimum 30 transferrable hours will be automatically considered for the following scholarships:

I emailed my advisor and asked what clubs or organizations I could get involved with pertaining to my major, as well as student engagement, and I got back a very informative response. If you’ll take the first step of showing interest, the process of getting engaged comes so easy here at UNA.”

UNIVERSITY HONORS COLLEGE
University of North Alabama’s campus-wide Honors College is open to all majors and includes financial, academic, service, residential, and social components. For outstanding students who want the full honors package, this route may be for you.

Typically, Honors courses have smaller enrollments (with 15 or fewer students), are oriented toward discussion rather than lecture, and involve a greater emphasis on writing and presentations for the grade.

PRE-PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS:
- Agriculture and Forestry
- Allied Health
- Architecture
- Dentistry
- Engineering (DDEP and PREP)
- Law
- Library Science
- Medicine
- Medical Technology
- Occupational Therapy
- Optometry
- Pharmacy
- Physical Therapy
- Physician Assistant
- Podiatry
- Religious Education
- Theology
- Veterinary Medicine

The University’s undergraduate courses of study and degree programs provide preparation for admission to professional or graduate schools.
