Appendix A - Classroom Safety Checklist

- Classroom has room number displayed and easily read
- Classroom door opens inward into the classroom
- Classroom door lock works
- Classroom door can be locked without stepping into the hallway
- Classroom door glass has a cover present and available
- Classroom windows have blinds or other type of covering
- Classroom window locks function and can be secured
- Room lights are in working order with good illumination
- Telephone or intercom access is near the teacher’s desk
- Phone directory or listing is current and accessible
- Emergency telephone numbers are readily accessible to all
- Telephone usage instructions are clearly posted
- First aid kit or supplies are stocked and location identified
- Severe weather and sheltering maps are posted (primary and secondary locations)
- Evacuation and sheltering locations have been discussed with students,
- Classroom rules and school code of conduct is posted and has been discussed with students
- Nearest fire extinguisher is located and more than one person knows how to use it
- Freestanding bookcases and cabinets more than five feet tall are secured to the wall
- Television and other large electronic equipment is secured to a wall mount or stable portable stand
- The room is free of any trip hazards or obstructions

  ☐ List of students
  ☐ List of students with special needs and description of needs (i.e. medical issues, prescription medicines, dietary needs), marked confidential
  ☐ List of school personnel
☐ List of school emergency procedures
☐ Whistle and hat for leadership identification
☐ Battery-operated flashlight
☐ Utility turnoff procedures
☐ Emergency communication device
☐ First aid kit with instructions
Additional items that schools may want to consider include: radio equipment, emergency communication mechanisms, battery chargers, cigarette lighter cords, two extra 3A fuses, gas, and LED lanterns.

Schools may wish to coordinate plans for emergency clothing and sleeping supplies with the American Red Cross or another agency responsible for mass care in a crisis situation. In many situations the school will already be designated as an emergency shelter with plans already in place for storage of cots and blankets, etc.

Stockpiling personal prescription medication is complicated by many factors, including expiration dates, insurance, expense of extra doses, and temporary versus long-term needs. Schools may be able to arrange to have on hand more “routine” medications like insulin or epinephrine that could be kept in a first aid kit. Some medications will already be stored in the school for the chronic use of individuals. This is an issue that must, at least, be discussed with parents, the school nurse, and the administrator.
Appendix E - Classroom Preparedness Checklist (from Ready.gov)

School Emergency Supplies and “Go Kits”
Every school, before and after care center, and day care center should store emergency supplies in preparation for either an evacuation or an emergency that requires students and staff to shelter in place. The safety team should select supplies that address the needs of the specific school, its population, climate, facilities, and resources. Because emergency supplies are so important, the school emergency operations plan should reference both the supplies to be stockpiled and staff role responsible for stocking and replenishing.

School Emergency Supplies
Every school should store emergency supplies in case its students and staff are required to shelter in place due to an emergency or a lockdown. All supplies should be securely stored in an accessible, central location. They should be labeled, protected, and maintained. Supplies that have expiration dates (such as batteries, food, water, and prescription medications) must be replenished over time. The safety team leadership should delegate the responsibility for making sure that these kits are properly stocked and replenished.

Schools should consider the following lists in light of their particular needs. Some items are easily stored while others are not. For example, extra clothing for young students is commonly stored in the classroom; older students could store extra clothes in their lockers.

Classroom Supply Checklist
- Clipboard with
  - List of classroom students (and photo)
  - List of students with special needs and description of needs (i.e. medical issues, prescription medicines, dietary needs), marked confidential
- List of emergency procedures
- Whistle & hat (or other identifier) for teacher
- First aid supplies
- First aid instruction manual
- Medical gloves
- Food
- Water
- Battery-powered flashlight
- Batteries
- Blankets
- Bucket
- Sanitary items (towelettes & toilet paper)
- Work gloves
- Breathing masks
- Plastic sheeting
- Duct tape
- Can opener
- Hard candies
- Student activities
“Go Kits”
In case of an emergency evacuation, it is critical that every classroom and the administration maintain a “go kit,” a self-contained and portable stockpile of emergency supplies, often placed in a backpack and left in a readily accessible but secure location so that it is ready to “go.” The school safety plan should reference the go kits and note the personnel to whom responsibility is delegated for stocking and replenishing them. The contents of the go kits should reflect the safety team's consideration of the school's circumstances and resources.

☐ Clipboard with
  ☐ List of classroom students
  ☐ List of students with special needs and description of needs (i.e. medical issues, prescription medicines, dietary needs), marked confidential
☐ List of school emergency procedures
☐ Whistle and hat for teacher identification
☐ First aid kit with instructions
☐ Student activities (such as playing cards, checkers, inflatable ball)
Appendix F - Maintenance and Security Safety Checklist

Use the following checklist to assess the school’s current level of safety related to the development of your EOP. If an element is in place, check YES. If changes need to be made, check IMPROVE. If the element is not in place, check NO. If the school plans to implement this missing element, check IMPLEMENT. In some cases, an element may be not applicable (N/A) to your school.

- Clipboards with emergency job descriptions
- Office supplies: pens, paper, etc.
- Signs for student request and release
- Alphabetical dividers for request gate
- Copies of all necessary forms
- Cable to connect car battery for emergency power

Food:

The bulk of stored food should be easy to serve, non-perishable and not need refrigeration or heating after opening. Food is generally considered a low priority item, except for those with diabetes and certain other specific medical conditions. One method used by schools is to purchase food at the beginning of the school year and donate it to charity at the end of the year. A supply of granola bars, power bars, or similar food which is easy to distribute, may be helpful. Some schools store hard candy, primarily for its comfort value.
