

Eleanor Parks Gaunder Scholar Application English Majors, Graduate Study

This scholarship was established in order to help “dedicated women students return to graduate study in English.” “Qualified applicants must be enrolled as full time students who are resuming their educations after an absence of at least five years, and, to the extent permitted by law, preference shall be accorded to women.”

Applications received in the UNA Department of English by the first Monday in February are considered for the academic year’s award, which begins fall semester. Apply online by submitting simultaneously the completed application form, letter/essay, resume', and transcript. Or hand-deliver to the English Department.
