  - The MDW subcommittee met to review nominees. Zills asked for votes from everyone for each category and there was not a clear winner so we had a teams meeting, then narrowed down to 2-3 for each category. A word document to summarize candidates was sent to the committee.
  - The MDW Applications were filtered by diversity areas discussed in the last meeting – minority groups, financial need, and gender
  - The subcommittee provided top selections of students to receive this scholarship from each category -
    - Incoming Freshmen: Daniela Pascual, Chloe Byrd, Arlie Armstrong
    - Current Student: Emmanuel Koum Ngando, and Kenneth Davies
  - The committee has access to a word document (see email attachment) with nominating information for each of these students to review in order to select the final choices.
  - Discussion of final selections for MDW scholarship. G. Zills explained each candidate to the committee. C. Flippo did express her support for Emmanuel and vouch for his character. D. Patel brought up his experience about having to provide evidence that he could afford the education before he was accepted. D. Patel asked C. Flippo to address this. She explained that the currency in his country has changed which has added to his need. His currency equals 0.00006 of the American dollar. Committee decided to vote today with comment in chat.
