On November 27th 2025, The Marching Pride of North Alabama will be a part of the Macy's Thanksgiving parade. Be sure to tune in and support UNA's incredible marching band!

Committee Spotlight

Student Welfare

The Student Welfare Committee is dedicated to advocating for and addressing the needs of all students on campus. This year, the committee plans to focus on supporting transfer students and amplifying the voices of international students. These efforts aim to foster a more caring and supportive campus environment for all. The committee consists of Chairwoman Strickland and Senators Sharma, Staggs, and Vincent. They have excelled in their committee by making events such as the SGA Transfer Student Social and the Under The Stars Halloween Movie Night.

Resource of October

Disability Support Services

The Aubrey & Annie Looney Disability Support Services office provides support and appropriate accommodations for students attending The University North Alabama either online, at off-campus instructional sites, and/or on campus with learning, physical, and psychological disabilities. The mission of Aubrey & Annie Looney Disability Support Services (DSS) is to facilitate appropriate and reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. It is our goal to ensure students with disabilities have equal opportunity to achieve their academic goals while maintaining the integrity of UNA's academic program requirements. The Aubrey & Annie Looney Disability Support Services provides reasonable accommodations, for qualified students. DSS is the Philanthropy for SGA this academic year. Events such as the 5K and Crews and Brews are for funding our philanthropy.

Registered Student Organization of October

Spanish Club (Club Ñ)

Club Ñ, UNA's Spanish Club, made a strong impact this Hispanic heritage month by volunteering as Spanish-English interpreters with local clinics and organizations, advancing both community engagement and health equity. They also hosted the foreign languages department's annual celebration, showcasing latin dance, games, food, and cultural traditions. Through their service and events, Club Ñ has promoted language justice and inspired engagement across campus and the community. Their dedication highlights the power of cultural exchange in building a more loving UNA.

Student Engagement's Student Leader of October

Nick Germann

Nick has shown remarkable growth and resilience as a student worker funded through the VA, despite facing many challenges. Nick continues to support the M.V.A. office with commitment, initiative, and positivity - going above and beyond to assist fellow veteran students and form study groups that benefit the wider campus community. Nick's dedication, leadership, and ability to build connections across student groups make him an outstanding example of integrity and service at UNA. His perseverance and selflessness reflect the very best of our student community.
