Get involved with Mane Month

The Student Engagement Center, located on the first floor of the Guillot University Center, coordinated Mane Month each year. Mane Month is a collection of activities hosted by various organizations, groups, and departments across campus during the first five weeks of the fall semester. Our goal is to identify and promote multiple opportunities for students to connect with campus organizations, resources, and the community right from the start of their UNA career. Please use the schedule included in this booklet as a guide to take advantage of campus opportunities.

Calendar details are subject to change. Please refer to the Mane Month website www.una.edu/manemonth for updates to the calendar as well as links to the webpage of the sponsoring organization of each event. You may also call the Student Engagement Center at 256-765-4248 for assistance.

The Student Engagement Center Mission:
The Student Engagement Center dedicated itself to developing influential citizens and just leaders through opportunities that engage students in our campus, local, and global community.

Student Engagement Vision:
Developing Leaders, Inspiring Success
