

Marching Band Extravaganza Schedule

Saturday, September 10, 2022

Registration Deadline: Wednesday, September 7, 2022

|                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7:00am-8:30am  | UNA Marching Pride RehearsalBraly Stadium-open to the public                                                                                                                                    |
| 8:30am-9:00am  | UNA Marching Pride Exhibition for MBEXBraly Stadium-open to the public                                                                                                                          |
| 9:00am-9:30am  | Saturday Morning Check InBraly Stadium-bring yourinstrument/equipment and music                                                                                                             |
| 9:30am-11:30am | Extravaganza Practice with the UNAMarching PrideWe will learn drill, have sectional time, andput the entire production together! Yourfamily is welcome to watch the whole process. |
| 4:30pm         | Call to StadiumSouth end of the stadium in the warm-up area                                                                                                                                     |
| Halftime       | Join the Marching Pride on the field for the finaleof the halftime show!                                                                                                                       |